

Feelings

Poems by Larissa Lockwood

Larissa Lockwood's book, Feelings, is a collection of beautiful, intense and intimate poems. Larissa has been writing poetry since her teens and she shares with us her every day experiences and memories; feelings of joy and sadness, serenity and fear, anxiety and humour. Her poems explore issues such as love, depression, motherhood and loss. She captures images and thoughts with her words and illuminates issues we can all relate to. We accompany her on her life journey from teenager to womanhood and motherhood as she recollects the instances and emotions that have marked and shaped her life.

Her poems are illustrated by the well renowned artist, Trémois, whose drawings echo many of Larissa's feelings. It is an illuminating and beautiful book of poems and drawings.

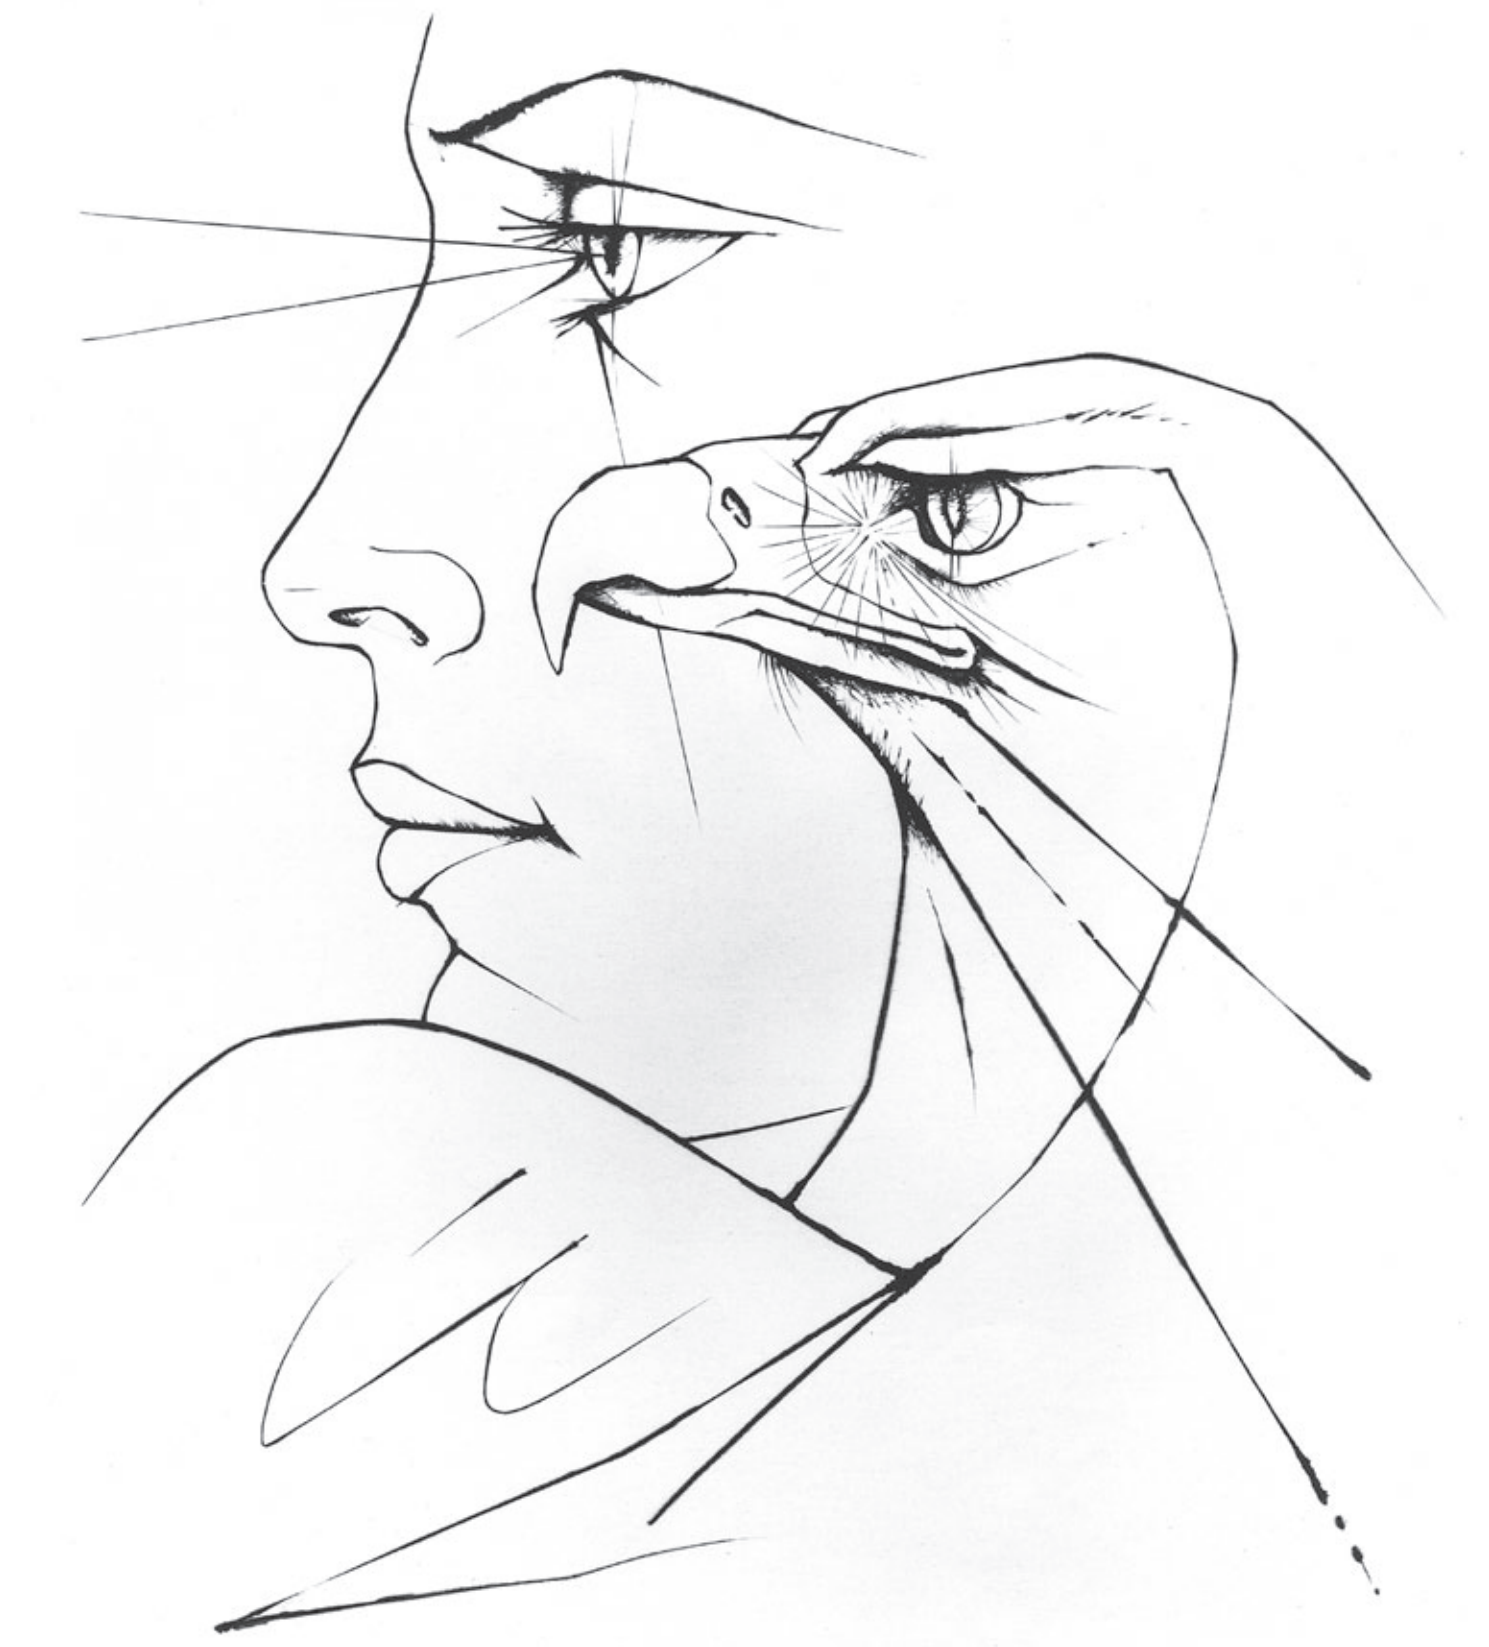

Format: 24 x 32,5 cm
Number of pages: 104
Number of illustrations: 25
Bound and sewn under cloth
Parution: January 2014
Price: £95

ISBN: 978-2-903824-88-4

Larissa's poems

Larissa Lockwood and Trémois

Trémois, Visage à l'aigle, burin, 1987

echoed by Trémois

Trémois, Mythologies, burin, 1970

Table of contents

8	Mother	71	Spleen
11	Mother – daughter	73	Madness – Betty Blue
13	Leah	75	Clarity
15	Jade	77	First Depression
17	Five years	79	Lost
19	Elizabeth	81	Fear of me
21	A Poem for dad	83	Black Shadow
23	Sisters	85	Mania
25	Flashes of colour
27	Ode to Mike	86	Beyond Life
29	Lovers	89	Loss
31	A Reply	91	Grandfather
33	Life is precious	93	Them who are no longer – in their memory
35	Havana	95	Solitude
39	Anniversary	97	Petals of childhood
41	Paddy	99	The Stag
		101	Milly
44	Passion – Love
47	Three Days
49	The Unconfidence of youth
51	Teenager
53	First Passion
55	No goodbyes said
57	History lesson
59	Memories of fear
63	Temper
65	Closed Doors
67	First Night
69	A Dream

Lovers

"I see the light of a snowflake
That dances in your eyes."
Whispering this way and that,
Telling truths of beauty and joy,
Love transcends the prison of the body,
What beauty and hope that only you
Can see a snowflake that dances in my eyes!